About The Philly Show

The history of the Philadelphia Sports Card and Memorabilia Show, known today simply as “The Philly Show,” spans generations of Philadelphia area fans, attracting sports enthusiasts and collectors since the 1970s.

After outgrowing The Valley Forge Casino Resort Convention Center, the Philly Show relocated to the Greater Philadelphia Expo Center at Oaks in September 2022, allowing for an expanded floor plan and autograph area to better accommodate the 5,000-7,500 attendees.

Each show features a unique autograph lineup packed with yesterday and today's stars from both Philadelphia and national markets, as well as over 150 of the best dealers from across the country with inventory that spans the hobby - vintage to modern, sport to non-sport, cards, autographs, memorabilia, Funko and more.
